proudly co-present the launch of

Inspiriting Fellini

Literary Collaborations

Behind The Scenes

By

Dr. Federico Pacchionion

Sebastian Paul & Marybelle Musco
Chair in Italian Studies

Wednesday, March 12th 4:30-6:30PM
Doy and Dee Henley Reading Room
Second Floor, Leatherby Libraries
Chapman University, 1 University Drive, Orange, CA

ADVANCE PRAISE FOR INSPIRING FELLINI:

“Focusing on the filmmaker’s intense and sometimes turbulent relationships with his collaborators, Inspiriting Fellini leads us through the intricate scriptwriting process which produced such masterpieces as La strada, La dolce vita, 8 1/2, and Amarcord. Thanks to Pacchioni’s meticulous archival research, penetrating analyses, and accessible style, specialists and film-buffs alike have a great deal to gain from the discoveries and insights of this important new work.”

Millicent Marcus, Professor of Italian, Yale University

Contact: Essraa Nawar, Leatherby Libraries, Chapman University nawar@chapman.edu (714) 532-7748