Fragments of History:
The Mysterious Mayan Written Word

A Faculty Master Class presented by
Jessica Bower, MLIS

During the colonization of the Americas, the written texts of the Maya were destroyed and their ancient language nearly lost. In this presentation, we will explore the mystery, history, and controversy of the remaining fragments of the surviving Mayan written word. Jessica Bower discusses her research on the written texts of the Pre-Columbian Maya with visual examples from the collections of the Leatherby Libraries.
