About the Exhibition

“1984: Not Forgotten” is an exhibition about the near-destruction of the Sikhs' holiest 16th-century shrine, the Golden Temple of Amritsar, in 1984. This exhibition is the first of its kind in the world. It will feature contemporary and historic articles, personal letters, photo montages, artistic interpretations commissioned for the exhibition, and written testimonials from survivors.

This exhibition will highlight the stories that survived the events since 1984, showcasing the courage of those that continue to fight for justice, the difficulty in rebuilding life, and the horrors of those days in November 1984.
