ABOUT THE EXHIBIT

The Spirit of Our Leaders: Presidents of Chapman University is presented by The Frank Mt. Pleasant Library of Special Collections & Archives at Chapman University. This exhibition highlights the history of the university and its leaders, exploring themes such as opportunity, diversity and spirit.

The ephemera of this exhibit consist of correspondence and photographs taken from the University Archives. These items inform the collective memory of a distinguished legacy of leadership throughout Chapman University's history.

ABOUT THE CURATOR

Chloe Van Stralendorff is a second year Master of Library and Information Science student at San Jose State University. During her undergraduate years, she discovered the importance of libraries and their effect on the communities they serve.

In pursuit of a specialization in Librarianship and Archival Studies, her professional goal is to expand the accessibility of resources through outreach within an academic library. Fueling her passion for library services, she is currently a Library Technician at Anaheim Public Library.
