Responsibility

You are responsible for all items checked out on your account. You are responsible for all fines, fees, replacement costs, and charges that may result from overdue returns, damaged, lost, lost in transit, or stolen items, including those obtained by Interlibrary Loan. Library accounts are not transferable. You are responsible for returning the items you checked out by the due date.

Checkout Limits

You may have up to 50 items checked out at any given time. Requests for materials submitted after the 50 item limit will not be processed, and no additional materials will be checked out to you until some/all materials are returned. The checkout of audio/visual items is restricted to 5 items at any given time. Any audio/ visual requests made after this limit has been met will not be processed. Some of our collections are unavailable to request through the delivery service due to shortened checkout limits. These include our Reserve Collection, McNaughton Collection, or any other items that have special, shortened checkout limits that cannot be mailed.

Any outstanding fines or overdue materials will prevent you from further borrowing. For more information about checkout limits please see the Checkout Limits brochure.

You may renew Leatherby Libraries books and videos online by logging into your My Library Account or calling the Brandman University Library Assistant at (800) 344-5756 Ext. 1. Only you may request a renewal for the materials you borrowed. Items may only be renewed once. Items cannot be renewed if they are overdue or "on hold" for another patron. Items may be "recalled" by another patron and will not be renewed after a minimum use period.

Recalls

Items needed for Course Reserve may be recalled at any time and must be returned immediately. If an item is recalled, you will be sent an email with the new due date. Failure to read your email does not remove your responsibility for returning the item by its new due date.

- You will be assessed a $2.00 overdue fine per day, per recalled item to a $10.00 maximum late fine per item.

Holds

You can place a "hold" on any item that is currently checked out to another patron. Once a hold has been placed, the item cannot be renewed, and once returned, it will be set aside for the first person who placed the hold. Holds can only be placed on items checked out to other patrons.

Placing a Hold

You may place a hold by using the Library catalog on the Leatherby Libraries homepage. An item with a status of "DUE mm/dd/yy" may be put on hold. When you have pulled up the item record (click on the title until there is only one item listed on the page), look to the upper left for a link entitled "Place a hold." Click the link, then enter your name and seven-digit barcode, which is your Brandman ID# (not your username and password).

Follow the instructions.

You will be notified by email when the item has been returned and available for check out. You need to contact the Brandman University Library Assistant at (800) 344-5756 Ext. 1 to tell us that you still want the item. If you do not respond within 5 days, the item will either be passed on to the next requester or re-shelved.

You are responsible for returning library materials by the due date. Materials are not considered returned until they are received at the Leatherby Libraries.
