

ORANGE COUNTY LIBRARY ASSOCIATION
2006 SPRING PROGRAM

A HISTORY OF ORANGE COUNTY ARCHITECTURE

Join OCLA members and architectural historian Richard Dodd, AIA, for a lecture and photographic tour of the development and history of architecture in Orange County. Mr. Dodd, who writes a monthly article for Orange County Home Magazine, will focus on unique and historic homes while detailing the numerous architectural styles occurring in Orange County from the late 1880s to the present time.

Where?

Fullerton Museum Center
301 North Pomona Avenue, Fullerton 92832
(Free public parking structure across the street on Wilshire Avenue)

When?

Wednesday, May 17th, 7:00 p.m.

Cost?

$10.00 members
$12 non-OCLA members

Refreshments will be served.

Name: _____

Address: _____

Telephone: _____

Email: _____

Mail to: Hugh Treacy, Associate Director
Whittier Law School
3333 Harbor Boulevard
Costa Mesa, CA 92626
(714) 444-4141, ext. 495
htreacy@law.whittier.edu

Makes checks payable to:
Orange County Library Association