Have you ever wanted to discover the inner workings of a presidential library? Are you interested in learning more about archival work? Please join us on May 14 when Supervisory Archivist Greg Cumming takes us on a private tour of the Richard Nixon Library after the library is closed! Following the tour, all attendees are invited to the OCLA meeting and dinner at El Torito Mexican restaurant down the street from the library. The tour portion of the program is free. Attendees will make their own menu selections and pay individually at El Torito.
